A7 2010i OCLC Number: (OCoLC)729227103 Subject: Nuclear weapons -- Government policy -- United States. Excerpt: . . . 11 deterrence strategy and defense posture. As the combatant com-mand responsible for executing strategic deterrence operations, planning for nuclear operations, and advocating for nuclear capa-bilities, at STRATCOM we are keenly aware of how force posture and readiness changes can affect deterrence, assurance, and overall strategic stability. The New START treaty agreement, in my view, retains the military flexibility necessary to ensure each of these for the period of the treaty. In support of the New START treaty negotiation effort, STRATCOM analyzed the required nuclear weapons and delivery vehicle force structure and posture to meet current guidance, and provided options for considerations by DOD. This rigorous ap-proach, rooted in both deterrence strategy and assessment of poten-tial adversary capabilities, supports both the agreed-upon reductions in the New START treaty and recommendations in the NPR. In closing, every day STRATCOM remains focused on providing the President, and future presidents, with the options and flexi-bility needed for deterrence. Today, our deterrent is safe, secure, and effective; our forces are trained and ready; and STRATCOM is faithfully and fully carrying out its mission, each and every day. I am confident that the NPR and New START treaty outline an ap-proach that continues to enable the men and women of STRATCOM to deliver global security for America, today and in the future. Thank you again for the opportunity to testify before this com-mittee, and I look forward to your questions. The prepared statement of General Chilton follows: REPARED TATEMENT BY EN EVIN HILTON P S G. K P. C,...
