Cross Country for Two

By M Ruth Moore

Page Publishing, Inc., United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .What happens when two teen-aged girls decide to cross the vast country of Canada by horseback? Cross Country for Two tracks the unexpected adventures and romance that Brenda and Robbie encounter as they make their way from Nova Scotia to the Pacific Ocean. You will feel the excitement of what happens when people step out of their comfort zone as the girls face several challenges along the roads. You will grow to love the heroines, as well as their horses, as you see how they persevere during their months of travel across all sorts of terrain. Have your faith in humanity restored as you read about the kindnesses that strangers show the girls during their trek, and see what can happen when some of those strangers are caring and handsome. Cross Country for Two is a good old-fashioned tale of exploration with no objectionable language or scenes. Readers of all ages will enjoy this fascinating account of two girls who grow up on horseback as they see the beautiful people and scenery of Canada.
