Totally incredible as it must sound, we have nevertheless a number of fraternity men whom some abortive delusion of superiority has rendered so perverse that they would not think of associating with men holding dissimilar fraternal connections; and not a few instances are known of men who refuse even to speak to or in any way recognize members of another fraternity. Distinctly the crowning absurdity of our generation! You will readily agree, I think, that among men supposed to be representative of the highest type of American civilization such a flaunt of petty conceit, of ludicrous or pitiful illiberality is unbelievably infantile and asinine. I bear a firm conviction that men who have arrived at this period in life not cognizant...
