Written by an accomplished lawyer, already popularly known by several animated little books on religious topics, this work vigorously argues that the claims of the Bible are, as related to the actions of men. in direct conflict with the democratic spirit of the times. Mr. Mauro's position in the legal world accounts for the acumen which characterizes his pages. He writes as a consecrated controversialist, and instead of posing simply as an apologist for the Bible he aggressively carries war into the camp of the opponents. His statements are sharply pointed. Thus, he asserts that the Bible is the only book in the world that is truly hated, and he proceeds to show why. A great merit of the treatise is that it does not dogmatize at random. Every asseveration is followed up by reasoning and this is always calm and clear. The Spiritual Year. By The Rev. James Silvester, M.A. Cloth. 12mo, 167 pp. Thyme, London. 2 shillings. Belonging to a category which is ever increasing, this is an Emotional Book for Sundays and Holidays, from the pen of the Vicar of Claxton, Essex, Eng. Mr. Silvester's Wayside Poems have made many readers familiar with his name, and this work will enhance his reputation. A poem is given on every alternate page, and facing this on the opposite page is a series of comments on texts, followed by a prayer. The treatise is admirably calculated to assist quiet devotional...
