THE YOUTH CLUB

Austin Macauley Publishers, United Kingdom, 2016. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 198 x 129 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Neil Trelford, Business Improvement Coordinator and sometime rock club promoter, has written a soundtrack to one summer of his life: always entertaining, often fascinating and sometimes grimly so. The story is set in Ulster during the latter-day Troubles. The eponymous youth club in Antrim is where the narrator - Neilly to his teenage mates - decides to embrace Mod culture, and where it all seemingly comes to an end. Recounted in amazing detail, the boys lives revolve around clothes, music, football - and, less savoury, drinking and glue-sniffing - and dreams of possessing the latest Lambretta or Vespa, with a cute Modette on the pillion .The Youth Club is perhaps also a metaphor for Ulster youth, disaffected to an unusual degree by the toxic sectarianism of the times, embracing one or other culture - Mods, Rockers, Teds, Skins, Punks - as an escape from the normality of political and religious bigotry, and harsh law enforcement.
