

The First Honeymoon: New and Selected Stories

By Lyn Coffin

Iron Twine Press, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 203 x 127 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .In this extraordinary collection, Lyn Coffin writes with heart of longing and searching-for place, for connection, for love. Here, among these 17 stories, an artichoke reveals for a young bride the fault lines already dooming her new marriage; a mother makes final amends for telling an unwelcome truth about Christmas by telling a comforting lie about death; a young girl navigates the madness of her mother, the possible evil of her father and questions about her own state of mind; and we are treated to an inspired retelling of the classic Tortoise and the Hare fable. Coffin's fictions cross boundaries; they are funny, ominous and heartbreakingly true. Sexy, smartly engaging and quirkily off-beat, these stories are a delight to read and ponder. - Judith Roche, National Book Award-Winning Author of Wisdom of the Body Like Oates, like Updike, Coffin gives us characters we recognize, in spaces that are familiar-a coffee shop, a bar. She masterfully reveals the small yet extraordinary moments which eventually become irrevocable fate. Fiction worth re-reading: witty, wise, deeply imagined. - Jed...
