St. Martin's Griffin, 2009. Book Condition: New. Brand New, Unread Copy in Perfect Condition. A+ Customer Service! Summary: "This book is a rarity: humble in its beauty, elegant in its reflection."-- Anchorage Daily News "Huckleberry Finn written by Charles Dickens, a story of self-preservation told without bathos. . There are two adventures here, each in its own wilderness and each with its own measure of indecision, difficulty, discovery and serendipity." --Jim Rousmanier, Keene Sentinel "With its poetic fineness and almost mathematical detail, fly-fishing has a gestural language which links aficionados on a stream, even in silence. It's that language that Ureneck hoped would help reverse a widening gulf between himself and a teenage son. The hope played out in an eventful fishing trip on Alaska's lonely Kanektok River in 2000. The father-son link was reknit, if not right away, and not necessarily in the way Ureneck imagined. . More than a fish story, it's an autobiography, and at the center are two broken families." --David Mehegan, The Boston Globe "Although the fishing-trip memoir verges on literary cliché, this recounting of an Alaskan journey that Ureneck, head of BU's journalism program, took with his son manages to more than stand out calling to mind at times that gold standard of fish-and-family portraits, Norman MacLean's A River Runs Through It . Exploring in equal parts the Alaskan wilderness and his tricky relationship with his son, Ureneck is not content with mere absolution; instead, he hunts for redemption, and along the way nets a fresh start with his boy." -Geoffrey Gagnon, Boston Magazine "[A] thoughtful, engaging memoir.an enjoyable, heartfelt narrative."-- Kirkus Reviews "The unflinching terrain of the Alaskan interior has yielded an unflinching memoir, one of the finest meditations on fathers and sons that I've ever read. There's nothing sentimental or sugarcoated here..."
