Excerpt: .which will be devoted to original Communications, Clinical Reports, Abstracts and Translations, Selections from Home and Foreign Publications, Editorial Articles, Comments and Paragraphs, Book Notices and Reviews, Records, Recollections and Reminiscences, and the Formulary or Prescription Department. In the twenty-four years that have elapsed some of the most important advances in medical science have developed; while many fads, fancies and fallacies have been dismissed to a well deserved obscurity. The pages of The Southern Practitioner during this time is a fair record of the position attained and occupied by medicine and its allied sciences. And it will be its aim so long as life and strength is permitted its editor to keep fully abreast with all that can be demonstrated to be of practical service in so grand and glorious a work as pertains to the Healing Art and Science. Again thanking our kind...
