James Clarke & Co. 1 Cloth(s), 1970. hard. Book Condition: New. A find from a small British publisher, this 1970 publication is a philosophical tract written by Anna Morduch, better known as Anna Gmeyner, author of the novel Manja, who fled Nazi Germany in 1933, worked as a scriptwriter with Bertolt Brecht in Paris, and was the mother of novelist and children's author Eva Ibbotson. Morduch argues here that the story of the Grail in all its different versions is neither romantic fiction nor the invention of one culture; every race of mankind has its own Grail story, and the Quest is neither more nor less than the way of man towards a higher state of being. This vintage book may show some signs of age, including light foxing. 196.
