BiblioGov. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 38 pages. Dimensions: 9.7in. x 7.4in. x 0.1in. Pursuant to a congressional request, GAO reviewed: (1) the military services justifications for their fiscal year (FY) 1994 budget requests for ammunition; (2) the Army's request for ammunition production base support to determine whether the programs should be funded in the amounts requested; and (3) selected segments of prior-year ammunition programs to determine whether unused funds could be rescinded or used to reduce the FY 1994 request. GAO found that: (1) the services have justified most of their 1.129-billion FY 1994 requests for ammunition; (2) the Army has justified its 207.2-million request for production base support; (3) 197.9 million of the FY 1994 request has not been justified and should not be funded; (4) the Army's 527.2-million FY 1994 request for ammunition and 207.2-million FY 1994 request for production base support could be reduced by 118.2 million; (5) the Navy's 277.1-million FY 1994 request for ammunition could be reduced by 57.9 million for 11 items; (6) the Air Force's 293.3-million request for ammunition could be reduced by 21.5 million for 3...
